

Mandatory Reporting Task Force

January 10, 2024

- January 10, 2024

Dr. Kathi Wells, Vice-Chair
Trace Faust and Doris Tolliver, Facilitators

Roadmap 2024

- January 10, 2024 – Definition of Abuse and Neglect
 - Select exemptions and identify possible language from other states.
- January 24, 2024 – Definition of Abuse and Neglect
 - Respond to draft language and continue developing possible amendment.
- February 7, 2024 – Definition of Abuse and Neglect and Discussion of Reasonable Cause to Know
 - Finalize draft of definition begin to identify language for reasonable cause to know.
- February 28, 2024 – Finalizing Reasonable Cause to Know

Roadmap 2024

- Subcommittees
 - Warm Lines and Alternative Reporting
 - Technical Components of the Law -- Group One
 - Exemptions and Carve Outs
 - Technical Components of the Law -- Group Two
 - Required Trainings
 - Ongoing Education and Certifications

Directive Overview

Total = 19

Ongoing = 3 Complete = 0

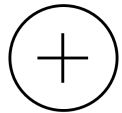

- Analyze the effectiveness of mandatory reporting.

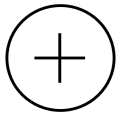

- Analyze disproportionate impacts of mandatory reporting.

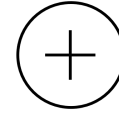

- Alternative process and services for children and families.

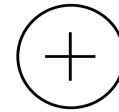

- Standardized training for implicit bias.

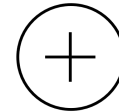

- Standard training regarding the requirements of the law.

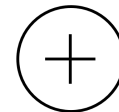

- Definition of “immediately” and timeframes for reporters

- Reporting timeframes when domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking is involved.

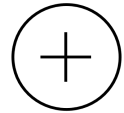

- Reporting medical child abuse, standards and processes.

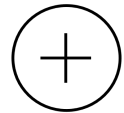

- Whether mandatory reporters have a duty that extends beyond their professional capacity.

Directive Overview

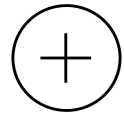

Total = 19 Ongoing = 3 Complete = 0

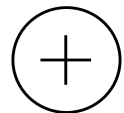

- Reporting requirements for employees/agents of attorneys providing legal representation.

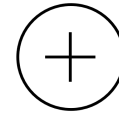

- Reports involving children/youth who are the victim of dating violence or sexual assault.

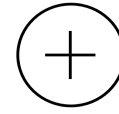

- Reporting process for two or more mandatory reporters who have joint knowledge.

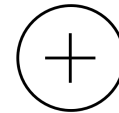

- Whether the duty to report may be delegated to another.

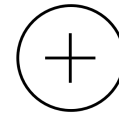

- Whether institutions may develop internal policies regarding mandatory reports.

- Training requirements for people applying/renewing professional licenses.

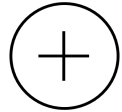

- Child personal information collected for a report.

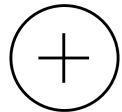

- Standard training for county departments in determining which reports meet the threshold for assessment.

Directive Overview

Total = 19 Ongoing = 3 Complete = 0

- Benefits of an electronic reporting platform.

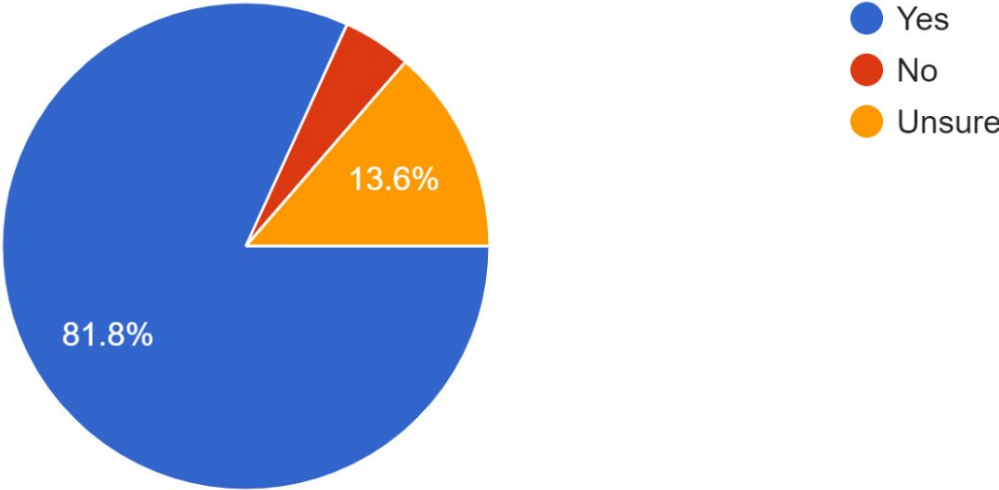

- Process for inter- and intra-agency communications, confirming receipt of reports and, in some circumstances, sharing the outcome of reports with certain mandatory reporters.

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on socioeconomic status?

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on socioeconomic status?

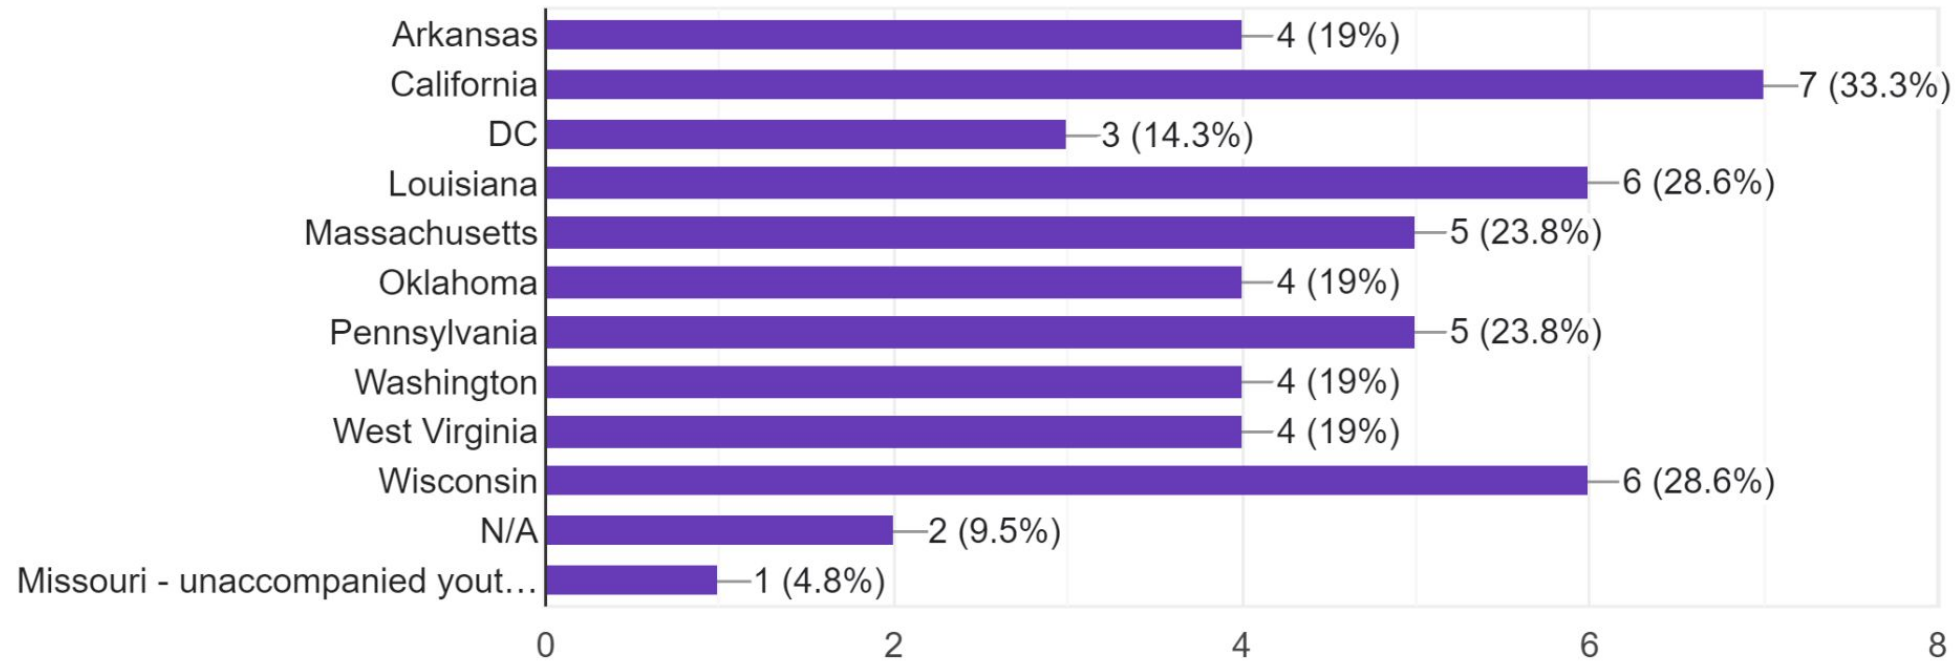

22 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on socioeconomic status?

Which state example(s) provided seem most worthy of replication in Colorado, if any?

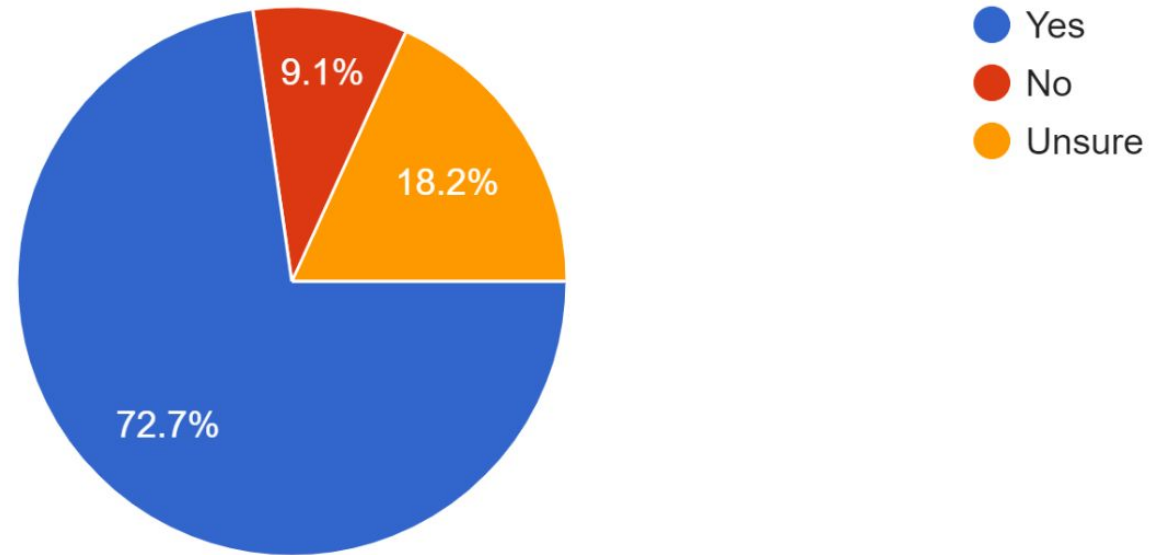

21 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on unaccompanied/unhoused status?

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on unaccompanied/homeless status?

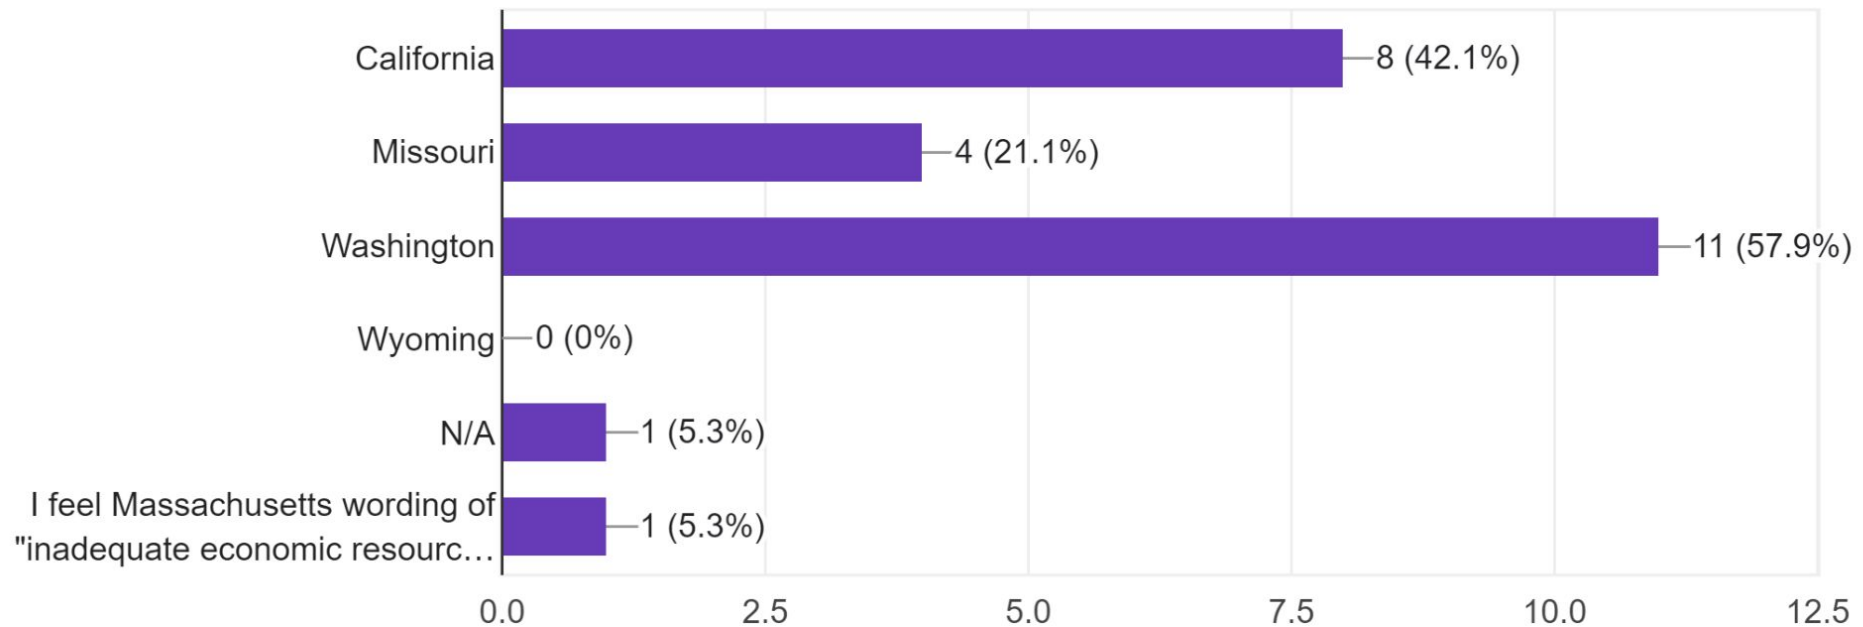

22 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on unaccompanied/unhoused status?

Which state example(s) provided seem most worthy of replication in Colorado, if any?

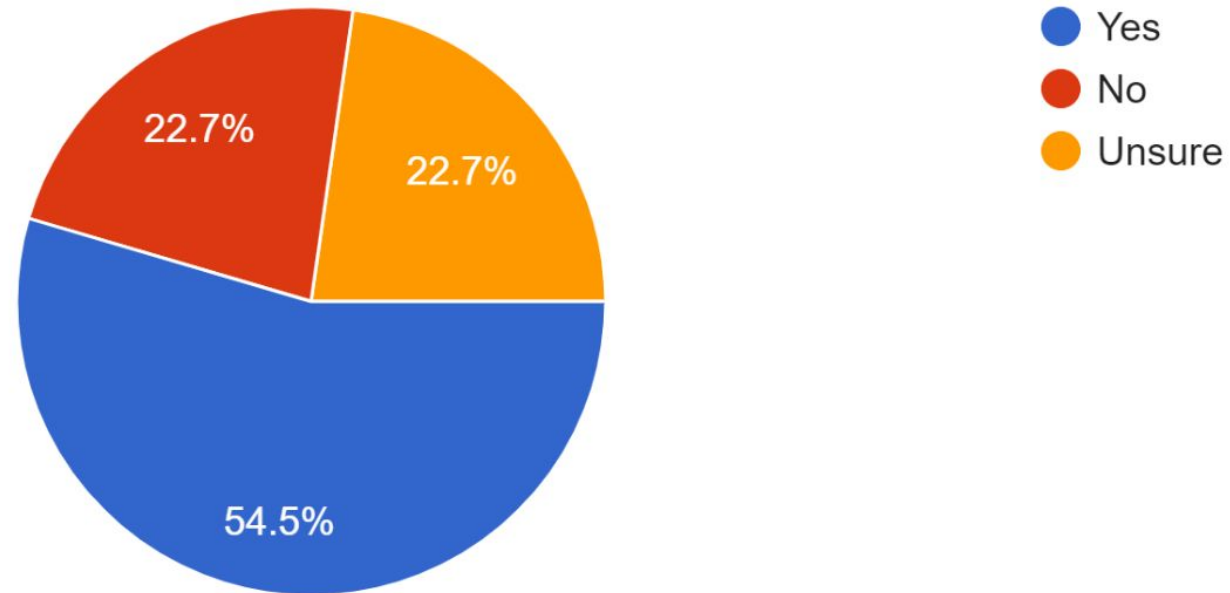

19 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception if services unavailable or have not been offered?

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception if services are unavailable or have not been offered?

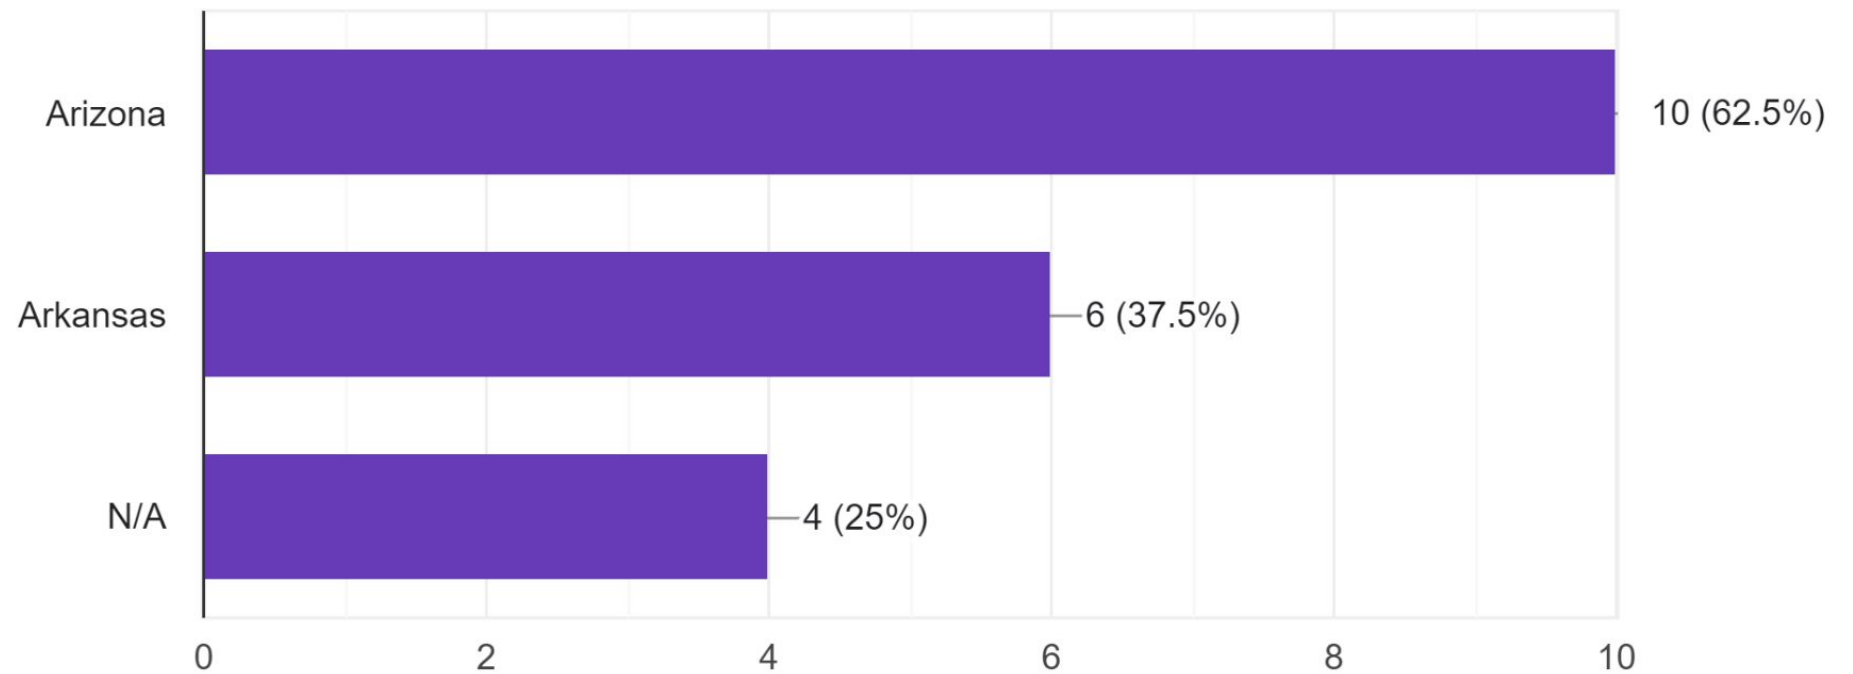

22 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception if services unavailable or have not been offered?

Which state example(s) provided seem most worthy of replication in Colorado, if any?

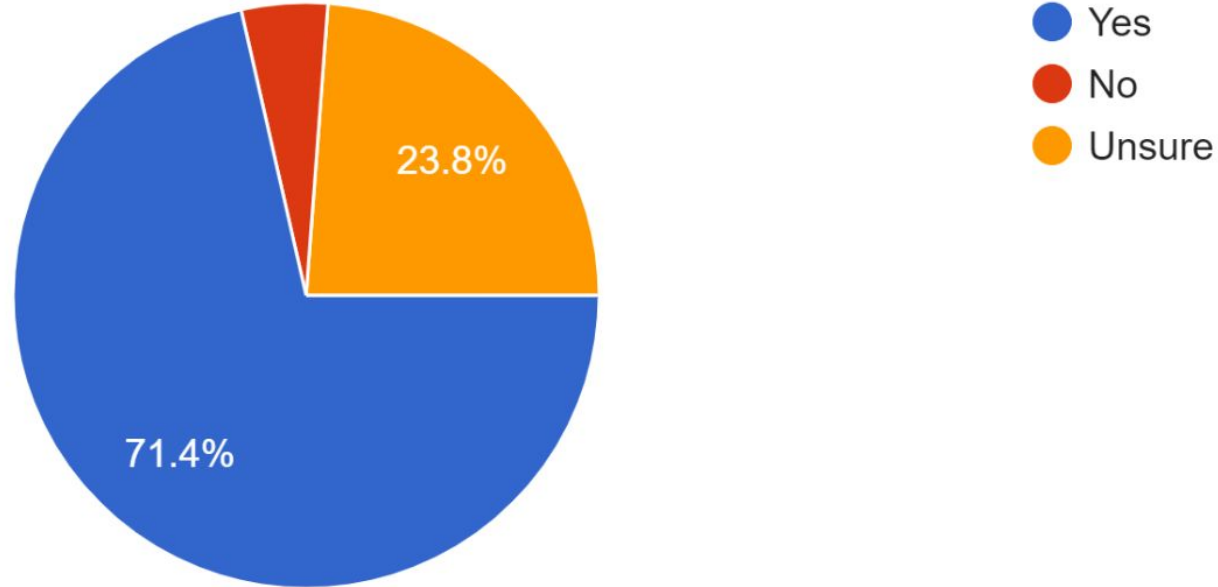

16 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on disability status?

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception if services are unavailable or have not been offered?

21 responses

Should Colorado pursue creating an exception based on disability status?

Which state example(s) provided seem most worthy of replication in Colorado, if any?

21 responses

